👛 EXPERIENCE

Chief steward

2018 - 2020

Rajmahal Cruise ship

As the sun rose over the harbor, the hustle of the cruise ship began. I, a junior steward, was eager to learn under the guidance of our chief steward, Mr. Thompson. He was a seasoned veteran with a reputation for excellence, and today I was tasked with shadowing him throughout the day

The morning briefing set the tone. Mr. Thompson reviewed our schedule and outlined our goals: ensuring every guest felt valued and every detail was perfect. I watched him command respect as he spoke, balancing authority with approachability. His meticulous planning inspired confidence in our team. As I left the ship that evening, I reflected on the day's lessons. Inspired by Mr. Thompson, I knew I wanted to follow in his footsteps, striving to become a steward who not only managed service but also created memorable experiences for every guest.
