About Me

I am a motivated and versatile professional with a passion for both precision in accounting and the warmth of front office interactions. With a degree in Bcom Cooperation from Kannur University, I have developed a solid foundation in accounting principles and practices.

I believe in the power of teamwork and collaboration. My proactive nature and willingness to learn allow me to adapt swiftly to new challenges and contribute effectively to a diverse team. I am adept at balancing the demands of meticulous accounting tasks with the interpersonal demands of front office responsibilities.
