Tul Bahadur Darai

SALES

Greeting of the day" I am tul bahadur darai. I have been working in sales for the past 4 years, gaining valuable experience in various industries and roles. During this time, I have developed strong communication and negotiation skills, as well as a deep understanding of the sales process and customer relationship management. I have consistently met and exceeded sales targets, and have received positive feedback from clients and colleagues for my experience has taught me the importance of building strong relationships with customers and understanding their needs in order to provide tailored solutions that drive revenue and business growth.

ACHIEVEMENTS

Top Sales

I am proud to have achieved top sales in my company for the past four consecutive quarters exceeding my targets by 20% each time. this achievement is result of my dedication hard work and strong relationships with clients. IAM grateful for the recognition and look forward to continuing to excel in my sales performance.
